A Third Way Beyond Capitalism and Communism

HELP BUILD THE PAPER - PAY THE £1 SOLIDARITY PRICE

ISSUE 107

THE BIG CON

MAGGIE THATCHER has got away with a gigantic con-trick, fooling all her conventional political opponents. They've watched her in election after election and they've decided that the only way to beat her is to join her by adopting her policies and ideas of 'Peoples' Capitalism'.

So we've seen David Owen being invited to join the Tory party. Neil Kinnock and Brian Gould trying to take the 'Socialism' out of Labour. And even the Communists saying that "the Left could do worse than beginning by Learning from Thatcherism".

But in their disgusting haste to try Thatcher's recipe for power and fat salaries, none of these political pygmies have noticed that her 'popularity' is based not on what she actually does, but merely on what she says.

SHE SAYS she stands for law and order. Yet violent crime has reached record levels since she took power. She has done nothing to bring back capital punishment for cold-blooded murderers. She has done nothing to curb alcohol-related crime for fear of offending the distillery companies and brewers who give so much to Tory party funds.

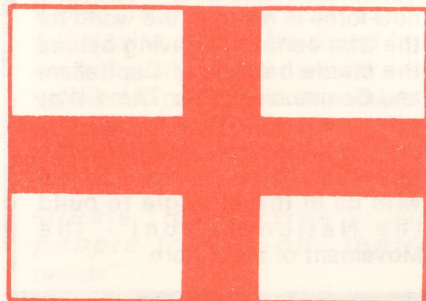

SHE SAYS she believes in people having responsibility and a stake in society. Yet she has done nothing to encourage direct ownership of workplaces. In spite of the huge success of imperfect worker/management co-ops such as the National Freight Corporation, all she has encouraged is 'ownership without control' in the form of share ownership.

SHE SAYS she stands for the family. Yet she did nothing to help the token Bill which would have saved the lives of thousands of innocent babes. And she has presided over economic policies which place huge stress on family life. Unemployment and poverty encourage divorce and baby-battering. And telling fathers in the North to "get on yer bike" and go to work in London, travelling home only at weekends, also encourages the break-up of the family.

SHE SAYS she believes in home ownership and in tenants controlling their own estates. Yet she has done nothing to help the ever-growing number of families unable to pay the exorbitant interest rates on their home loans. The last few years have seen a record number of houses being repossessed by Building Societies, Banks and Loan Sharks. And Thatcher's talk about the new Housing Bill giving tenants the "right to choose" is a particularly cruel con-trick. The new law will do nothing to help set up co-operative housing schemes where tenants are responsible for their own homes and estates. Instead it will allow get-rich-quick speculators to take over any estate they fancy. Tenants will only be able to resist this if a majority of them vote against it; anyone who doesn't vote will be counted as voting 'yes'. So tenants who don't understand the issue, are too old to go out to vote, or who have recently died, will all be counted as voting for take-over by property speculators!

SHE SAYS she represents the "party of patriotism". Yet she sees Britain purely in economic terms. She has done nothing to preserve our national sovereignty. She has made us totally subservient to U.S. foreign policy by allowing Britain to be used as a base for Cruise missiles and for the murderous attack on civilian targets in Tripoli. She has handed Ulster over to creeping rule by a foreign power in Dublin. And although many Blacks in Britain want to go home, she hasn't even encouraged the voluntary repatriation schemes which are possible under present law.

HOME AFFAIRS, ANALYSIS & COMMENT

YANKEE
REVEALED

"STRIKE ON LIBYA" is the title of a recent article in the glossy magazine Air Pictorial. It trots out the usual right-wing rubbish about the American terror raid on Libya in April 1986. Operation El Dorado Canyon being an act of 'self defence' on the part of the USA, even though Reagan has never produced his widely reported promised 'evidence' of Libyan plots against his corrupt empire.

But it also makes a fascinating admission which confirms the political motivation behind the decision to use the occupying bases in Britain for the strike. It makes it clear that there was actually no need to involve Britain in the terrorist act as the two US aircraft carriers in the area at the time could have done the job on their own.

It states that the US navy is confident that it could have coped, but that the decision to use USAF planes from bases in Britain was made on political rather than tactical grounds. It quotes one US Navy official as saying "you need no permission from another country to launch aircraft from a carrier".

In other words, Reagan deliberately put Britain in the firing line. And the only possible reason for that is that he and his Pentagon advisors wanted to involve another country so that the Libyans would have another legitimate target for retaliation, so lessening the chances of America being hit.

RACE-MIXING
ENFORCEMENT OFFICER IS EXPOSED !

NEW RAF TRAINER GETS INTO TROUBLE

ONCE again the State has put political pressure on the RAF to buy a trainer that it does not want. The government has decided to buy the Tucana trainer originally designed by the Brazilian Embreair company. This is despite the fact that the British Aerospace PC(9) trainer was the favourite amongst air force pilots during trials.

Indeed, it is so good that they are being sold to the Saudi Arabian air force as part of a 5 £Billion sales package.

Critics argue that the Tucano has been selected over and above the British Hunting Firecracker and the PC(9) due to its South American origins rather than because it was a better aircraft. It seems that the government have put outside political motives above the needs of the nation. The government's desire to mend relations with South American States after the Falklands tragedy is the prime reason for buying the new aircraft.

CREDIT where credit is due ! Agriculture minister Donald Thompson has announced that caffeine levels in soft drinks are to be limited to 125ml a litre. This is designed to stop sales of a cola drink containing FIVE TIMES the caffeine of coffee - twice the new legal limit.

The idea is that people who drink the muck quickly become addicted. And as the makers of 'Jump Cola' openly told shops, it is "bad for customers but good for profits".

HARMFUL ADDITIVES

It's a pity that the government won't follow this up with moves against other artificial and harmful additives which poison mass-produced food.

LEGAL

But the makers of Jump Cola are American based and do not make large donations to Tory Party funds

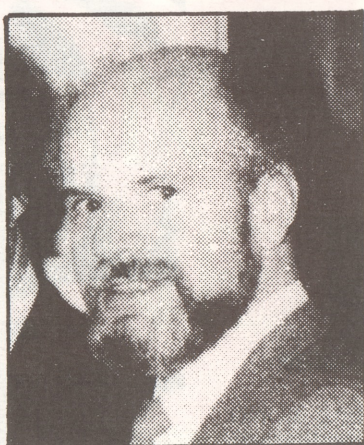

Many of the other offenders by contrast are 'British' companies which give a small but valuable fraction of their profits to the Conservatives, and seats on the board of directors to retired M.P.'s.

So nothing will be done about them.

COMMITTEE BACKS DOWN OVER POLLUTION

M.P.'s FAIL THE ACID TEST

KEITH BRADFORD:

admitted exposing himself with the words "There you are, you won't get better than that this side of Cairo". He also admitted touching and kissing an Asian girl. She told council investigators that she felt she could not tell him to stop because he was her boss.

Bradford's hypocrisy and disgrace made front page of the local press, but the national media ignored a story which was so obviously damaging to the image of the multi-racist bigots working in the field of Community Relations.

So we may see more of this self-righteous pervert. As he left his job in Oldham he said that he now intended "to provide a consultancy in the field of race relations and equal opportunities, spend some time freelance lecturing and also to write a book".

We expose more of the System's Sewer rats on page 4.

European proposals to combat acid rain have been predictably rejected by British M.P.'s.

In a report issued in 1984 an all-party committee had called for much larger reductions in coal burning pollution to a level now proposed by the West Germans who are seeking to reduce emissions of sulphur, oxides of nitrogen and dust by over 60% by 1995.

But now to the government's relief the all-party committee has turned its back on its 'caring' proposals because now that the Germans have made their intention known the British would be forced to implement a policy that would cut their huge profit from pollution.

But to try and save face the committee now recommends that Britain should fit the flue gas desulphurization cleaning equipment to at least three power stations by 1993 instead of 1997 as presently envisaged.

But what NFN demands to know is why all of our coal burning power stations haven't been fitted with this anti pollution equipment already? It has existed for a number of years now.

Britain is the worst offender for distributing acid rain throughout Europe and also the least concerned. We are not even a member of the so-called 30 per cent club, a group of 21 nations pledged to reduce sulphur dioxide emissions by 30% between 1980 and 1993.

We are one of only five West European nations which have not joined the club and we pump more of the damaging chemical into the air than the other four nations do together.

This typical forest in western Germany shows signs of acid pollution. Large areas of the Black Forest have been decimated.

NATIONAL FREEDOM

Britain is a family of Nations - England, Wales, Scotland, Kernow, Mannin, Eire and Ulster - linked by blood and history. The peoples of all nations have an inalienable right to self-determination and to preserve their native cultures and traditions. We look forward to the day when Eire voluntarily rejoins the future federated British family of nations.

RACIAL SEPARATION

Race is the main determining factor in nationality. Racially mixed societies cannot form one nation and are therefore unstable.

No one race is 'superior' to others, but they are all different. Racial integration threatens all races. Humane repatriation is better for us all than endless repression and racial violence.

SOCIAL JUSTICE

The nation is a great family. Every member of our national family has the absolute right to care at the nation's expense when young, sick or old. There must be equal opportunity for all, but unearned privilege for none.

WELL DISTRIBUTED PROPERTY

The realistic opportunity to own one's own home and place of work is the right of all our people. Direct ownership of the means of production and distribution is essential for individual freedom, for family stability and for the best use of our national resources.

SANITY IN FINANCE

The right to create the credit needed by the economy must belong to the people's government. The banks, which have usurped this right, must be stripped of their unjust gains and power. The National Debt is based on usury and must be repudiated.

RESPECT FOR NATURE

We hold the environment in trust for future generations. Pollution of the land, sea and air, and of the gene pool through radiation, is a betrayal of that trust.

DIRECT DEMOCRACY

Parliamentary representation is a fraud. Party rule is a cloak for the dictatorship of vested interests and media bosses. Government must be in the hands of the people themselves, through new information technology, and the election of delegates to carry out their wishes. Power must be devolved to the lowest possible level.

THE ARMED PEOPLE

The freedoms given by these principles must be defended through armed neutrality, with well-equipped national defence forces involving the entire adult population. Power, wealth and arms in the hands of the people!

REVOLUTION NOT REFORM

These changes cannot be brought about by tinkering within the System, or by relying on the System's own institutions, such as parliament, schools or the courts. They can only spring from a National Revolution. This revolution must begin in the hearts of individuals, then spread by their example to involve whole communities in revolutionary structures such as alternative councils and schools, neighbourhood patrols and self-help groups. Once we cease to depend on the institutions of the old State, it will be swept aside.

THE THIRD WAY

The growth of these ideas in nation after nation shows that a new force is rising in the world for the 21st century. Leaving behind the sterile hatreds of Capitalism and Communism, this Third Way offers a real future for all our peoples. We urge all those who agree with these principles to join with us in the struggle to build the National Front - the Movement of the Future.

WORLD AFFAIRS, ANALYSIS & COMMENT

MOHAWK'S
FIGHT BACK

CANADIAN M.P.'s have been told that Red Indian grievances are "a ticking time-bomb".

Some insight into the reasons why can be seen as the government of Canada tries to destroy that race's culture and way of life in the name of profit.

The government plan to extend a logging road into an area of Indian tribal land. This has resulted in Indians blocking a highway near Temagami, Northern Ontario.

They have also demonstrated against the seizure of a fishing boat, which the government claimed was fishing illegally.

Indians quite rightly do not accept the White government's 'right' to regulate how little or how much they fish or hunt in what is after all their own land.

It is not the Indians who have caused pollution of the land, rivers and seas and hunted many species to the brink of extinction.

In fact if the Canadian government is really worried about preserving the balance of nature then it is the native Indians that they should be learning from and not dictating to.

THE DEMO
WAS!

A MAJOR and dramatic demonstration in New York against Israeli aggression back in February was completely hushed up by the mass media.

That NFN only recently found out about it from the 'underground' grapevine is testimony to the importance that the Zionist controlled media place upon ignoring such events.

The demo was also further dramatic evidence of the break up of Zionist influence around the world as the heroic Palestinian uprising continues.

Many of the demonstrators were Black and were particularly angry about the Israeli State's oppression of the Black Hebrews living in Palestine and by "international oppression by the world Zionist community".

ROAD BLOCKS

In spite of very cold, wet and windy weather, over 1,000 people joined the protest. And in a surprise move, six twenty-five foot long furniture lorries driven by protestors swerved at angles to block major roads in the city's Diamond district.

Having let down their tyres, the drivers abandoned the vehicles and disappeared into the crowds. A massive traffic jam followed.

Leaflets and posters explaining the action were given out in large numbers. Yet although New York's rush hour traffic was completely paralysed, the heavily Zionist controlled mass media chose to ignore the protest altogether.

THE MAGGOTS CRAWL
OUT OF THE BIG
ROTTEN APPLE

CORRUPTION among Health Inspectors in New York is as widespread as everywhere else in that sick society where Money is worshipped above all else. A police investigation has uncovered a racket which could have endangered the lives of hundreds of thousands of people who eat out in 'the Big Apple'.

The scandal involved the city's 150 Health Inspectors, who are supposed to check health code violations in New York's 15,000 restaurants.

According to court documents just published, many of the Inspectors have been on the take for the last ten years, extorting hundreds of thousands of dollars from clean establishments, and taking bribes to "turn a blind eye" to dirty and unhygienic ones. More than 300 restaurants, coffee shops and diners were forced to pay between $50 to $1,500 to get their premises passed by Health Inspectors.

$3,000 PER DAY

Mr. James Fox, who led the investigations, reckons that "inspectors working in teams could visit eight restaurants and net more than $3,000 per day". Other kickbacks came when restaurateurs were advised to hire former health workers as "consultants" to avoid future problems. Those who refused had their businesses closed down on spurious grounds.

No fewer than 28 New York Health Inspectors have now been charged with extortion. But the city's mayor, Ed Koch, has dismissed the scandal by saying that "no section of our society is without corruption".

We couldn't have put it better ourselves.

PRESIDENT CALLS FOR BRITS TO LEAVE CYPRUS

PRESIDENT Vassiliou of Cyprus has called for the closure of the two sovereign British bases in the country.

Whitehall officials have refused to even consider this. They say that the sovereignty of the bases was written into the islands Independence agreement signed in 1960, and is not negotiable. Whitehall regards this part of Cyprus as "as much a part of Britain as Devon or Cornwall."

OUTPOSTS

As a Third Position movement, the NF has stated its fundamental opposition to all forms of Imperialism. But there are still several outposts of the British Empire that remain and from which we must express our intention to withdraw.

Cyprus is one of Britain's biggest overseas military commitments, with 10,000 servicemen and family members. But since Britain no longer has an Empire east of the Suez Canal, bases on Cyprus are of no use to us whatsoever. Their main purpose today is in the defence of the USA and Israel.

TIMES OF TROUBLE

Since the British government is so subservient to Zionist influence, there is no doubt

British Soldiers should come

that the bases could be used for either direct intervention by the armed forces or as a base for the Yanks in times of trouble.

As nationalists, we declare that the armed forces should do nothing more, or less, than defend our own people. We fully agree that the bases in Cyprus should be closed down now. British troops should defend the British peoples, not symbols of a dead Empire or the interests of pressure groups.

ARMED NEUTRALITY

The NF call for armed neutrality is also backed by large sections of the armed forces according to reliable sources.

British troops are sick of being used as International pawns and being sent to war zones that have nothing to do with them.

According to one NF supporter who recently finished "his time" in the army along with several comrades, things are near to boiling point. Apparently there was a near mutiny when our soldiers were sent into the Gulf to defend Yank interests, and in scenes reminiscent of the T.V. play "The Monocled Mutineer" striking squaddies in Germany had barbed wire and guards surround their camp until they were starved into submission.

His last posting was Cyprus he told NF News, and he claimed that over three quarters of his whole regiment were waiting to come out. Many of them hated it so much that they couldn't wait to finish their time and were buying themselves out.

He added that this was mainly due to the low pay, bad conditions and the increasing sadism officially endorsed by the authorities who turned a blind eye, but wider political and moral questions also played their part.

Let's first have a look at the address - 37B New Cavendish Street, W1. This is in fact a Quickprint shop which offers a "prestige address" and mail collection service.

an employment agency "Open Access Project Ltd". In company records the following subscribers are listed for 'Open Access':

L. Simmonds, 51 Warrington Crescent, London, W9 (Community Development officer).

M. Marshall, 64 Victoria Road, London, N22 4XF. (Head Office Administration).

Mark M. O. Clarke, 8 Albert Road, London, N5. (Community Relations Officer).

Y.E. Nicheison, 23 Queens Drive, London, N4. (Nurse).

and; M. Cummins, 3 Egerton Court, Hainault Road, London, E11 1EJ. (West Indian Liaison Officer).

The number given for "Sales and circulation enquiries: 0663 43599" is based at the home of former Morning Star journalist Graeme Atkinson at 115 Dye House Lane, High Street, New Mills, Derbyshire.

Atkinson recently accompanied Ray Hill, who was paid to make allegations against the BNP, on a speaking tour of Sweden. Strangely, Atkinson shuns publicity. He became extremely aggressive when a member of the public sought to take his picture at a meeting in Malmo. What is he worried about?

As the old saying goes: "Oh what a tangled web we weave, when first we practise to deceive".

In our next issue we take a look at another nasty little organization - The Economic League.

The telephone number 01 534 6445 is across town at 554 New Cavendish Street, Stratford, E15 2SP. Searchlight share space here on the third floor of a four-storey Old Mill building, now converted into factory units, with "Harcourt Dawson Insurance Investigations" (Telephone 01 519 5633).

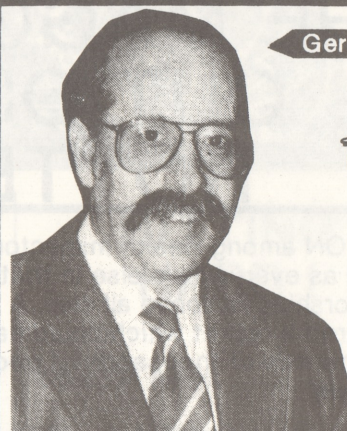

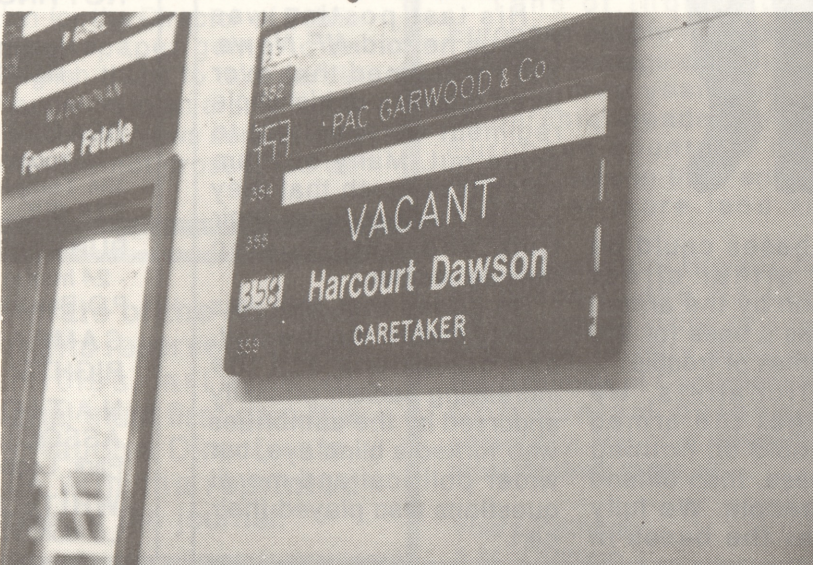

For some time SID ordered the building to be placed under surveillance. Imagine the surprise of those watching when Ian Anderson, a leading member of the Flag group, expelled from the NF two years ago, was observed walking from the building to his car! What was going on? In fact Anderson has a unit in the same building (#101) from which he operates a shoddy printing service called Panther Press which churns out tatty stickers and leaflets for the Flag. Searchlight and the Flag sharing the same building is no doubt an excellent arrangement which cuts out the need for Anderson to use the postal service (which as those who have ordered books from Mr. Anderson will know is very unreliable).

Searchlight previously used an office at 5A Westminster Bridge Road, London, SE1 7XW and the telephone number 01 928 9801. The other occupants of 5-5A Westminster Bridge Road, were

THE BIG CON

IS THERE ANY OPPOSITION ?

So is there any opposition to Thatcherism and her 'Peoples' Capitalism'? Not in parliament! Just look at the issues and Thatcher's 'opponents'.

CRIME: The Tories have failed. But Labour and the Social whatever they're called now's are even more opposed to capital punishment. They all worry more about helping the poor criminals than protecting or comforting the victims and their families.

THE FAMILY: The Tories have failed. Yet most of the opposition want to make induced abortions even easier. And Labour councils show what they think of family values by teaching homosexuality in primary schools and even nurseries!

HOUSING: The Tories have failed. But no-one else in parliament dares to offend the banks and financiers either. And the Labour party oppose local co-operatives because they would be a block to extra centralized State power.

PATRIOTISM: The Tories have failed. But the Social whatever they're called now's and half the Labour party are just as happy for Britain to be America's 'unsinkable aircraft carrier' and for Ulster to be ruled by Dublin. While the other half of Labour would rather be occupied by Soviet troops instead and see Ulster ruled by the Marxists of the IRA. And all the parliamentary 'opposition' parties want to scrap even the present pitifully weak immigration controls and allow our land to be flooded with aliens even more quickly than under Thatcher.

So the Tories have failed to keep their promises to do the things the British peoples want. And the parliamentary opposition parties have never even promised to do what we want. So the gap between vote-winning words and effective action can only be filled by a revolutionary new force in British politics.

Just look at the National Front answers to the problems.

WHAT WE SAY!

CRIME: Bring back the rope for child and sex murders. Increase the maximum penalty for rape to castration and/or life imprisonment. Give the ordinary people on juries the power to sack senile and liberal-minded judges who refuse to impose effective sentences. Ban all advertizing of alcohol.

FAMILY VALUES: Immediately outlaw Abortion on Demand and end the barbaric use of induced abortion as a form of contraception. Create an economic system based on well-distributed property which allows families to be independent and prosperous through their own hard work.

HOUSING: End the bankers' debt swindle so that people can afford to buy their own homes without having to pay three times their value in interest payments. Hand over council estates to their tenants to run on their own behalf. Give them the responsibilities and the opportunities of ownership and control.

PATRIOTISM: Declare British armed neutrality in international affairs. Close down all US bases in this country and keep out of other peoples quarrels. Recognize that Ulster is neither a colony of London or Dublin and grant her Independence within a federation of British nations. Protect the identity and culture of the British peoples by ending all non-White immigration and introducing a policy of phased, financially assisted repatriation of non-White immigrants and their descendants.

IN EVERY CASE the National Front is prepared to do what the opinion polls have repeatedly shown the British peoples want. This is not surprising because Nationalism and direct Peoples' Rule are one and the same.

CPR REPORT

IN our last issue we reported that the Campaign for Palestinian Rights, which the NF is involved with, had begun to take on an international perspective with the CPR leaflet "Terror Tours" being read out in its entire content on a radio station in Melbourne, Australia.

Since then even more international pressure has been brought to bear on ABTA through the efforts of the CPR.

The organizers of the CPR recently sent a telex to a Palestinian Congress in Libya which read:

"Fraternal greetings to the International Conference in Solidarity with the Palestinian Arab people."

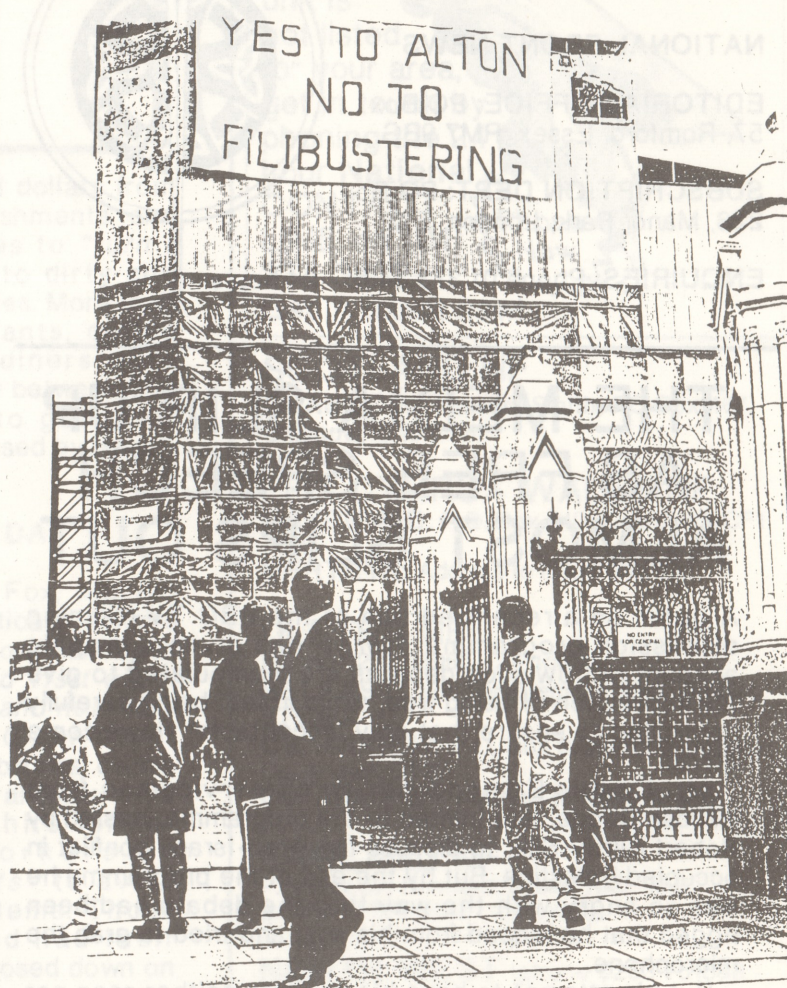

"Campaign for Palestinian Rights in Britain asks all delegates to protest Association British Travel Agents decision to hold 1988 conference in Zionist occupied Jerusalem. Write ABTA 55-57 Newman Street, London. W1P

"With you today in spirit for the Third Position."

Left: Another successful result for the West Suffolk CPR. This travel agent was forced to close down and the police can be seen inside.

PARLIAMENTARY CORRUPTION WINS AGAIN

THE Zionist and Capitalist media of Great Britain gave immense publicity to the jamboree called to 'celebrate' the 70th birthday of Nelson Mandela, a self-confessed Communist leader, and supporter of ANC terrorism directed against Whites and Blacks in South Africa.

This contrasts most markedly with the virtual silence that was accorded a pro-Life demonstration in London during the previous month. The day before the Parliamentary discussion of the Alton Bill, a small group of pro-Life activists scaled a building - at not inconsiderable risk to themselves - overlooking Parliament Square.

At precisely 8.30am they unfurled a banner 57 feet long and 27 feet high which read: "Yes to Alton. No to Filibustering". Timed to coincide with the rush hour, it meant that many thousands of Londoners were alerted to the fact that their so-called 'representatives' were about to perpetuate yet another bloody crime in the long and bloody history of the British Parliament.

REFORMIST DIVERSION

David Alton's Bill was little worse than a reformist diversion, yet it drew the vented spleens of the MURDER LOBBY that dominates our national life. The sanctity of life means nothing to such creatures, especially the arch hypocrite, Margaret Thatcher, who has the gall to proclaim that she is leading a 'moral crusade'. Truly the cesspit of filth and degradation that is modern Conservatism has surpassed itself in throwing up such a woman. A woman whose every statement and action are a contradiction and abuse of the English language.

And where were the media? A supporter of terrorism like Mandela gets hours of prime air time, yet this demonstration received just a few seconds on the BBC Six O' Clock news. After that, nothing.

Such is the balance of Life and Death in modern Britain. We are, therefore, reproducing a photograph that should have received serious and nationwide coverage, and we ask: "How long will our Peoples tolerate the stench of Parliamentary corruption and media manipulation?"

And the NF's Bureau of Foreign Affairs recently sent out a circular on behalf of the CPR to comrades overseas asking for solidarity and a request to put pressure on ABTA in whatever way they could.

In a letter received by ABTA only a few days afterwards the youth wing of the German NPD stated that:

"We can't understand that British travel agents are going to risk the health and the lives of innocent holidaymakers. How are you able to talk about business whilst Palestinian teenagers are buried with bulldozers and pregnant women are shot to death by Zionist soldiers?"

"We want to make it clear to you that we'll do all in our power to oppose you by informing German public opinion about your outrageous and dangerous plans".

Meanwhile, nearer to home, Dr. Lionel Kopelowitz, of the Board of Deputies of British Jews has called for members of the Jewish community "to call on their travel agents and demand that Abta proceeds as agreed with the conference in Jerusalem."

In his letter to the Jewish Chronicle of 17th June, Kopelowitz admits that ABTA have been under very considerable pressure to change the venue of their conference due to the actions of the CPR and the Arab-British Chamber of Commerce.

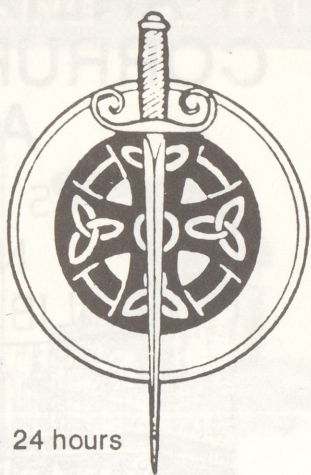

He doesn't mention the fact that the vast majority of ABTA members also oppose the venue, but that he felt forced to take this action in the first place points to ABTA being on the verge of backing down.

THE MEDIA SLIP UP AS FREE SPEECH ALMOST SLIPS OUT

A guest on a recent edition of the BBC TV morning discussion programme 'Kilroy' has given a graphic account of how such debates are manipulated to give the impression of being free, while in fact being carefully controlled to ensure that only 'acceptable' views come across.

Mr. Dennis Edmondson, an ex-serviceman from Hebden Bridge, was invited to the programme, hosted by Robert Kilroy-Silk, to discuss the Arab-Israeli conflict in occupied Palestine. But by the end of the programme he was so angry with the way that the debate had been rigged that he leaped from his seat and tried to grab the microphone.

But his attempt to have his say was neither seen nor heard. What he shouted was 'scrambled' out and the film was edited to keep him off screen. Mr. Edmondson was particularly angry that although Kilroy-Silk said that the programme supported free speech, a statement by a Palestinian was cut completely. And a number of ex-servicemen who had served in Palestine during the Zionist terror campaign which led to the founding of Israel in 1948, were not invited to speak about their first-hand experience of Zionist atrocities.

STAGE MANAGED

"His programmes are very good at giving the impression of being impromptu discussion, but it's stage managed" said Mr. Edmondson. "The real cause of the trouble, the Zionist influence in the British government, was evaded".

The National Front has had long and bitter experience of the way in which the media appears to allow free debate, while in fact stifling dissent and pushing the Establishment line or that of extremely powerful interest groups. It is a problem that won't be resolved until the media, like the other instruments of government, are taken out of the hands of small cliques of Capitalists, Communists and Zionists, and put under the direct ownership and control of the peoples of Britain.

THE PLAGUE STRIKES AGAIN

ONCE again the modern day plague of football thuggery has hit Europe with some force, highlighted the more so because the English football scum were present in large numbers.

The politicians didn't waste any time in laying the blame for this nihilism on the availability of an endless supply of drink, but forgot to mention that it is their hard and callous society that has created this mindless attitude in the first place.

NF News calls once more for an effective campaign by nationalist groups throughout Europe to educate our youth away from such moronic behaviour. It is not easy to operate outside football grounds, as the State have an interest in keeping us away, but it must be done. And it must be made clear that the System will not take any serious measures to combat this problem as it is in their interest for the youth to fight each other instead of uniting and politically combatting the System.

NF News also has a question for the Director of Public Prosecutions: Is the Sun newspaper going to be prosecuted for inciting the English thugs to take part in the riots in Germany? This happened in an article in the Sun on January 21st 1988, which NF News commented upon in issue 103. And if they are not prosecuted we demand to know why not!

DEAR EDITOR

NEW ALLIANCE

Dear Sir,

I feel it was wrong to use the 'New Alliance' as front page material (NFN #103). Do not misunderstand me, I fully support the NF's stance as a Third Positionist political force but to 'everyday' people this issue is not vital. I personally think that this feature should have been on one of the inside pages, and a more topical subject such as Palestine, the closure of an elderly hospital wing in Merthyr Tydfil, abortion etc should be featured on the front page to 'win over' first time buyers.

I also feel it was wrong to have pictures of messrs Qathafi, Farrakhan and Khomeini as it is the ideal and not the person that counts. A symbol of each of the Third Way countries/organizations (e.g. The Nation of Islam, The Revolutionary Guards & The Jamahiriya) involved could have been used as was the Celtic Cross - incorporating the national flowers of the British nations - for the NF.

Please do not forget those who sell NF News door to door and on street sales. New readers must be won over, whereas regular readers will almost certainly buy the paper no matter what the cover issue.

Er Budd Cymru,
G.H. Caerdydd.

P.S. I would be very interested in knowing what first time and regular readers think, as well as the activists who sell papers.

ROYAL BETRAYAL

Dear Sir,

The 'British' Monarchy is a parasitic system that all true revolutionary nationalists must oppose and overthrow with as much vigour as we intend to use against the corrupt, evil, Capitalist System that currently enslaves our people.

Royalty and Capitalism are both creeds that live off and exploit to the full the workers labour; both are committed to the ideals of multi-racism; and both walk hand in hand to the eventual destruction of the peoples of Europe.

Tens of thousands of European people have died in needless carnage over the last few hundred years, as the Monarchical heads of many European countries have created wars in their endless greed for more land and wealth.

The system of Royalty has no place in the National Revolutionary vision of a new tomorrow. Royalty along with the twin evils of Capitalism and Communism belong to yesterday; National Revolution must destroy them all.

Yours Faithfully,
A.M. Oldham

HITTING HARD!

Dear NF News,

You people are really hitting hard when my mail starts to get tampered with!!! I can honestly say that in twenty five active years, my mail has of course been inspected thoroughly, but never tampered with. Your excellent November(2) issue mailed to me here at home arrived, but four of the five copies are missing their entire cover pages. i.e. the damaging photo of the storm troops on horses ready for their charge!!! - why they missed the fifth copy and left its cover is beyond me.

A practical suggestion: Why bother with any ceremony which involves use of the public streets at all? Surely you have people who would allow a rally on their private property for your own private services etc. I realize that this seems like a retreat suggestion, but surely sincere members of the public would find out where such and such a service will be held?

Of course, once your numbers are much larger then you would be able to force the establishment to 'allow' attendance on their 'free' streets and monuments once again.

You know very well that the post cannot be trusted at all, hence you personally deliver the issues of NFN whilst making your activity rounds, etc.

So what makes you think that the streets are any safer than the post?

Sincerely,
J.B. - Editor,
The Northern Light,

OVERDUE EDITORIAL

Dear NFN,

I have just read issue 105 of NFN and was pleased to see that reference was made to the plight of the American Indian and to the project undertaken by the Nation of Islam to clear their neighbourhood of the drug pushing vermin. But I would just like to point out to you, as it was explained to me by a top NOI official, that the term 'Black Muslim' was created by the media as a way of making out that a 'Black' Muslim was somehow different from any other sort of Muslim.

They are Black and they are Muslim in the same way that I am White and am a Christian, but I wouldn't go around calling myself a 'White Christian'. Although it is factually correct it is unnecessary and detracts from the Faith.

Your editorial was also appreciated, if somewhat overdue and I think that the Ulster issue, and in particular the Third Position solution to the problem will generate a lot

VIEWS FROM ULSTER

Dear NFN,

To answer the 'More Royal Betrayal' Comment I would just like to say that I totally agree with this Comment. I have always felt a certain 'dislike' for the 'Royal' Family.

As to be popular with the Peoples of Britain, now is the time to start positive events e.g. charity walk for cancer research.

I also think there should be more backing for non-skinhead nationalist bands in White Noise (whatever happened to 'Above the Ruins' etc). After all, the skinhead image is not so pleasant to some older people etc.

Your Race Campaign is a winner. More work is needed with Separatists of other races.

More articles on Housing, NHS, Unemployment and Pollution.

I for one will educate my children with nationalist ideas.

Yours,
G.N. Co. Down, Ulster.

Editorial Comment

We agree that there is a danger that the White Noise Club could be seen to cater purely for skinheads, thus alienating the vast majority of British youth who follow other musical trends. Subscribers to its fanzine 'White Noise' will have seen in the current issue that the Club is attempting to diversify the types of music that it covers, and would be pleased to hear from anyone who wishes to contribute articles and reviews reflecting other musical tastes.

We also agree with G.N. that it is essential for our people to get involved in local charity work as part of their Community Action campaigns. Some units, notably Oldham and West Suffolk have already done this.

But in doing so we must be extremely careful and discriminating in which charities we support.

For instance, most of the cancer research charities are nothing but fronts for the evil animal Vivisection industry. There are however one or two genuine cancer research groups one of which can be found in the Classifieds section (page 9).

of interest over here, as those who previously supported the likes of NORAD are beginning to see through the veil of lies and are looking for a real alternative to their Marxist rhetoric. There are after all 15 million Irish people or people of recent Irish decent in the USA and most of them still feel very patriotic towards their native land and the two nations within it.

Yours in struggle,
D.P. Washington DC, USA.

GOOD RIDDANCE

Dear NFN

Since joining the NF back in the mid-'70's, I have been called "fascist bastard" (even by the local police) and "Nazi scum".

I prefer this to "nigger-lover" any day - which is what NF'ers can be called today.

G.H. Smith,
Canterbury.

EVICT LABOUR NOT THE HOMELESS

IN A hard hitting leaflet produced by the NF in Hackney, the Labour run council comes heavily under attack for attempting the mass evictions of squatters on a run down estate.

Squatters from the Stamford Hill estate prepare to meet the police and bailiffs in order to defend their homes.

The council intended to rehouse over 200 squatters on the Stamford Hill estate, Stoke Newington into bed and breakfast accomodation.

This would put another 200 odd people onto the streets during daylight hours, whatever the weather, and would force them onto the merry-go-round of trying to find new accomodation every six weeks due to government legislation.

'GISSA HOME'

The leaflet points out that there are numerous council homes that have remained empty for years and fallen into disrepair. And that the squatters are actually saving the council money by making the houses and flats habitable once again, maintaining the properties and stopping them from becoming vandalized.

Hackney NF suggest that the council give the squatters rent books and then use the money to repair other empty buildings for people currently in bed and breakfast or on the streets to live in.

The squatters have the support of the local tenants association in the run down flats and have successfully repelled the mass eviction so far, which became Hackney council's worst kept secret.

When the bailiffs and police 'secretly' turned up early one morning to evict the squatters, they found themselves faced with barricades of burnt-out cars, up-turned rubbish skips and militant young squatters who had been waiting for them since 4am that morning.

TRAWLER PROMISE TO NORTH WEST FISHERMEN.

THE movement in the Fleetwood area of north-west England has made a further breakthrough in establishing itself in the town.

In an interview with a local paper (who to their credit gave a factual report), the Regional Political Officer for the NF in the area expressed our desire to get involved in community politics and to serve the people of the town. He stated that the NF would be sending out Community Action squads onto the streets "to interview local people to find out their needs".

The paper described how the movement wanted to see the trawler industry placed back into the hands of local families and quoted extensively from the interview with the NF official.

TRAWLER INDUSTRY

"More scope must be given for skippers to own their own trawlers, and we would be in favour of nationalizing the big banks for this to be achieved.

"With interest rates being at such high levels trawlermen are fearful about investing in boats because of the unpredictability of fishing.

"We also support the principle of workers' co-operatives on the basis that people should enjoy a stake in the place where they work.

"There is a great deal of scope for these in Fleetwood and the public response so far has been very encouraging.

"We don't believe that any supermarkets should be built in Fleetwood. The real need is for small shops. Again, these can only be established if interest rates are not sky-high."

WHAT IS TO BE DONE ?

THIS COLUMN keeps all Movement officials well informed of vital organizational tasks.

All officials and activists must read this column as soon as they receive a new paper - and ACT on the information here.

CPR - PHASE 2

The Organizers have promised to produce a new follow-up leaflet shortly. Prepare placards for further "Boycott ABTA" pickets. Use street theatre to grab attention as follows:

Dress two comrades in army combat gear and crash helmets with visors. Dress third comrade (younger and smaller) in jeans, plain T-Shirt and Arab headress. The 'Israeli Soldiers' should 'beat up' the 'Palestinian' whenever a customer approaches. Avoid offensive weapons (use cardboard tubes as batons). Invite press. Supply them and NFN with black and white photos and reports.

VIDEO WANTED

If anyone has a video of the final episode of "Yes Prime Minister", with its brilliant and sympathetic analysis of the benefits of Third Position popular rule as opposed to parliamentary representation, please write and tell NFN at once.

CONTACT LINES

Every region should have by now set up its own regional contact line for enquiries. Some of you haven't yet done this. Why not? This will become increasingly important over the next few weeks so do it! You should contact the National Contact Line for instructions on which type of answerphone to get.

IT'S YOUR PAPER

Cadres and supporters should remember that NF News is as much your paper as that of the volunteer NFN staff. We welcome reports and articles of interest from readers and Cadres are reminded that they should become regional journalists for NFN.

ISSUE 107

SMASHING THE FENIAN LIE-MACHINE

THE recent article, Smash the Fenian lie-machine! in NFN 104 has struck a chord with thinking loyalists outside the National Front.

The current issue of the Ulster Clubs' newspaper, Ulster Defiant, calls for a stepping up of the Ulster propaganda effort. The newspaper criticises the Unionist parties for their "total incompetence" at political propaganda. This view echoes what National Front News has been saying for the past two years. We welcome the Ulster Clubs call and hope that their proposed propaganda initiative goes ahead.

In the meantime, the Ulster National Front has not been sitting on the sidelines moaning that nobody understands us. We have begun a propaganda counter-offensive. Publicity leaflets telling Ulster's side of the story have been produced for circulation in Finland, Sweden, Portugal, the USA and Wales with many more to follow. Our initial aim is to convince patriots and national revolutionaries in these countries that Ulster is a genuine nation and her struggle deserves support.

NEO-MARXIST PROVOS

We also seek to discredit the neo-Marxist Imperialist Provos who have managed to fool many people in to thinking that they are genuine Gaelic nationalists. Work like this may not be very exciting, but it is vital if people are to understand the true nature of the struggle in Ulster. Our activities must not be sporadic but constant. The Provisional Republican Movement has its 'Irish Solidarity Groups' and the Eire government has its embassies throughout the world, both pumping out their vile lies and distortions. Our efforts may be like a fleabite compared with their multi-million pound budgets, but at least we're doing something. What are you doing?

We say, stop moaning and get involved! Join our struggle to build a new Independent Ulster with Social Justice for all. Circulate loyalist literature, such as National Front News to your friends, acquaintances and relations abroad. Make Ulster's Cause understood, make Ulster's Cause popular!

FEENEYIAN LIES

RECENT issues of National Front News have exposed how the SDLP is an agent for US Imperialism in Ulster through the so-called National Democratic Institute for International Affairs. This has obviously upset the SDLP.

Dr. Brian Feeney is a particularly obnoxious SDLP councillor on Belfast City Council. He doesn't like the National Front, so he has decided to smear the NF in the columns of the Sunday world. In a lurid front page article he claimed that "National Front agitators are planning a wave of sectarian street battles across Belfast peacelines". Naturally, as these 'plans' are the product of his fevered imagination, he has not produced any evidence to back up his ludicrous claims. He says that a riot in Alexander Park was masterminded by "a well-dressed stranger". If such a person does exist, there is nothing to show that he had anything to do with the National Front.

The NF have no plans to organize sectarian violence, nor have we done so in the past. In fact we seem to be the only movement capable of operating beyond the religious divide. We are a constructive political movement. We would not wish to see another sectarian murder like that of young Mark Bacon in Adam Street two years ago. People must protect their homes and areas when attacked and we have no right to criticise them. Nor has councillor Feeney.

Brian Feeney. He has stirred the sectarian pot for too long.

Feeney has stirred the sectarian pot in North Belfast for many years with his inflammatory rhetoric. National Front News brands him as a malicious Feeneyian liar!

History, Identity, Culture

IN OUR previous two issues we began to look at Celtic life in the 'Heroic Age', particularly Europe's oldest folk-tale, the Tain Bo Cuallighe, and the warrior Cu Chulainn, Champion of Ulster.

Two great mythological cycles have arisen from the island of Ireland. These are the Ulster cycle, which we have briefly looked at, and what is known as the Fenian cycle or the cycle of Ossian.

The Fenian cycle is as important, in a literary sense, as the Ulster cycle, but it is also extremely important in another way. For it actually complements the ancient tales of Ulster in proving that we have always been a separate and distinct nation in our own right.

The Fenian cycle is based around factual events from the second to third centuries AD, and enveloped in a mythology. So this tradition developed some considerable time after that of Ulster and the Red Branch Knights.

In those days, although there were numerous clan structures that held a certain autonomy, Ireland was divided into four major Kingdoms: Ulster, Leinster, Connaught and Munster. It arose that in the reign of Feradach Fechtach the Fianna were formed. The Fianna, from the word flan meaning 'band', were a Chivalrous body of professional Knights whose role it was to protect Ireland from invasion. This was the beginning of the nation of Eire in its cultural sense.

So we can see that Ireland, having been based on a tribal or clan system, began to develop a sense of national identity, co-operation and unity with the formation of the Fianna.

But like all temporal institutions, the Fianna eventually became corrupt and oppressive and lost its original vision. Their tolls raised the people of Ireland against them and their arrogance irritated King Cormac, so in 283AD, Cairbre Lifechair, the great grandson of King Conn, inflicted fatal defeat upon the Fenians at Gabhra, where he was also killed.

In the Third century, the era depicted in the cycle, the Order of Fenians numbered a hundred and fifty officers and four thousand men. Their activities covered the whole of Ireland except Ulster which retained its independence. For Ulster was strong amongst the four Kingdoms in military prowess; geographically she was almost 'separated' from the rest of Ireland by vast forests and bogs, and so she was able to assert her independence from the Fianna and the united Ireland.

So in fact the Eireann cultural tales, falsely propagated by many modern day Fenians, lend hefty weight to Ulster's just claim for political independence from England and Eire. This is something that should not be overlooked by loyal Ulstermen and women.
